Wasteland 1 Susan Kim

WASTELAND By Susan Kim & Laurence Klavan This is a young-adult, post-apocalyptic, dystopian novel. It is the first book in a trilogy. Although the catastrophe that befell the earth is never fully explained, we know that earthquakes decimated the landscape and that all rain that falls is poisonous and carries a plague-like sickness.

Welcome to the Wasteland. Where all the adults are long gone, and now no one lives past the age of nineteen. Susan Kim and Laurence Klavan's post-apocalyptic debut is the first of a trilogy in which everyone is forced to live under the looming threat of rampant disease and brutal attacks by the Variants — hermaphroditic outcasts that live on the outskirts of Prin. Esther thinks there's ...

Review of Wasteland by Susan Kim and Laurence Klavan

Redd Becker Book Review. Susan Kim and Laurence Kalavan created a dystopian adventure in Wanderers, Wasteland #2 that explores the human drive for survival in many forms. Each of us react differently. Although written in third person omniscient, Esther acts as the thread tying the story together.
